BOARD APPOINTMENT AT GREENCORE GROUP PLC ("GREENCORE")

The Board of Greencore announced today that it has co-opted Ms. Anne Truelove (41) as an executive director of the company with effect from 18th December, 2003. Anne Truelove is the Chief Executive of the Chilled Foods Division of Greencore. She joined the original Hazlewood Foods business in 1984 as a management trainee gaining wide experience in both its ambient foods and international operations. In 1992 she moved into senior management of its chilled foods business and was a prime mover behind the major growth of the Group's sandwich business.

Ms. Truelove has not held any directorship in any publicly quoted company at any time in the last five years. There are no further disclosures to be made in respect of Ms. Truelove pursuant to sections 6.F.2.(b) to (g) of the Listing Rules.

Commenting on this change, Greencore's chairman, Ned Sullivan said:-

"Anne Truelove has made a major contribution to the Group during the last three years. She has led the chilled foods business through a period of growth and success during this time and I am confident that her market knowledge, enthusiasm and skill will add considerably to the quality of the Board's deliberations in the coming years."

Greencore Group plc ("Greencore or the company") notes recent press comment concerning shareholdings in the company and wishes to make certain clarifications regarding these shareholdings.

On 11th December, 2003 Bank of Ireland Security Services ("BOISS") notified the Irish Stock Exchange that as at 10th December, 2003 Bank of Ireland Nominees Limited ("BOIN") held 27% of the ordinary share capital of Greencore on behalf of clients in its nominee name. The previous notification from BOISS occurred on 4th December, 2003 when the Irish Stock Exchange was notified that BOISS had a nominal interest in 21% of the ordinary share capital of the Group.

BOISS has informed Greencore that it has no beneficial interest in any part of these shareholdings.

As a separate matter on 8th July, 2003, Greencore was informed that Bank of Ireland Asset Management ("BIAM") had a beneficial interest in 15.97% of the ordinary share capital of Greencore held on behalf of a range of clients. Greencore has not been informed that that shareholding has changed since that date but has been informed by BOISS that its 27% holding includes 15.2% of the BIAM shareholding.

Greencore in preparation for disclosures to be made in its annual report has made enquires as to the ownership of certain shareholdings in its ordinary share capital and has received confirmation as of yesterday evening and today that the following companies no longer hold 3% or more of the ordinary shares of Greencore and have not done so for some time:-

Allied Irish Banks and its subsidiaries;
Fidelity International Limited; and Standard Life Investments Limited.

BOARD APPOINTMENT AT GRENCORE GROUP PLC ("GRENCORE")

The Board of Grencore announced today that it has co-opted Mr. Patrick A. McCann (52) as a non-executive director of the company with effect from 24th November, 2003. Pat McCann is the chief executive of Jurys Doyle Hotel Group plc, a position he has held since 2000. He is currently a member of the National Executive Council of IBEC, a member of the executive council of the Dublin Chamber of Commerce and chairman of its City Business Committee and a past president of the Irish Hotels Federation.

Other than Mr. McCann's directorship of Jurys Doyle Hotel Group plc he has not held any directorship in any publicly quoted company at any time in the last five years. There are no further disclosures to be made in respect of Mr. McCann pursuant to sections 6.F.2(b) to (g) of the Listing Rules.

Commenting on this change, Grencore's chairman, Ned Sullivan said:-

"The Board is delighted that a business person of Pat McCann's calibre with his considerable consumer and marketing expertise has accepted its invitation to join the Board and looks forward to working with him in the future."
